

ProBo YoFo Network

Pro Bono Young Folk – is an informal network of pro bono lawyers who are young(ish) in age, relatively new to the pro bono scene or not a head of practice. But we are all inclusive!

We meet quarterly and there is no set agenda. The idea is to meet others involved in the sector, hear what everyone has been up to and share ideas and support. We are also keen to support lawyers who are starting new pro bono practices or otherwise seeking to increase pro bono work at their firm.

If you would like to join our next gathering, please contact Ella Alexander at ealexander@makdap.com.au

ProBo YoFo is proudly promoted by the Australian Pro Bono Centre.
