

Approximately 1 woman is killed
 by her current or former partner each week in Australia.

Australian police
 deal with 5,000
 family violence
 matters on average every week.

In 2013, an estimated 80% of women and 95% of men never contacted the police
 about violence by their current partner.

People who experience family violence

In 2014–15, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander
 women were 32 times more likely to be hospitalised due to family violence than non-
 Indigenous women.

On average,
8 women a day
 were hospitalised after being assaulted by a spouse or partner in 2018.
